ABOUT Fernanda

Fernanda Negromonte is a talented real estate broker and owner of Nova Real Estate Services, Inc. As Orlando's leading luxury agent, Fernanda has over 11 years of experience working with first-time homebuyers, investors, and developers both in Florida and around the world.

Beginning her career in the real estate industry during the stock market crash of 2008, Fernanda proves time and time again her tenacity and persistence to achieve goals. She works tirelessly to ensure client satisfaction and takes the time to get to know her clients personally to best fulfill their wants and needs. Her compassion, honesty, and dedication make her stand out from the crowd.

After focusing on growing her personal brand during 2020, Fernanda has seen a tremendous amount of success in her business, both personally and across her Nova team. The Nova Real Estate Services team has grown to over 20 agents and offers both a wide selection of top-level real estate professionals and exclusive training for new agents. Through Nova, Fernanda customizes a cutting-edge, effective marketing plan for sellers. This includes marketing to homebuyers in both local and international markets, as well as on numerous social media avenues to solidify a quick sale at a great rate.

Fernanda is committed to engaging in continuous learning and education throughout the real estate process, adapting to the ever-evolving market. She prides herself on constantly creating new contacts, strengthening relationships, and acquiring knowledge. Fernanda is excited to help clients turn dreams into reality by going above and beyond all expectations.
